Dear UNC Press Author:

It is with great pleasure that I write you to let you know about an exciting new initiative here. It's called UNC Press Enduring Editions--our back-into-print program that utilizes the latest print-on-demand (POD) technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that have been out of print.

Your book, one of the first to be part of this program, is now available on Amazon.com (or will be available shortly). Just search for your book by its title or by your name, and you'll see it listed for sale. We are excited and proud of this program.

UNC Press Enduring Editions makes it possible for us to keep more and more of our books in print and available for sale to interested readers, scholars, and students. To make the program cost effective, these books have a template cover that lists the author and book title only. The EE books are available exclusively in paperback, unaltered from the original edition, preserving the integrity of your work. (You can consult your publishing contract for a reminder about paperback royalties.)

Please go to the UNC Press website: www.uncpress.unc.edu and click on the Enduring Editions link to view the whole list of EE books.

I hope you're as happy as we are to have your book back in print and available again. And feel free to contact me at any time with any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Dino A. Battista
