

Contents

Note on Style vii

Introduction 1

I. REDEFINING THE PROFESSION OF HISTORY

1. A Life of Learning 23
2. Women among the Professors of History:
The Story of a Process of Transformation 38
3. The M.A. Program in Women's History
at Sarah Lawrence College 52

II. DOING HISTORY

4. The Meaning of Seneca Falls 73
5. Midwestern Leaders of the Modern
Women's Movement 85
6. Women in World History 103
7. Taming the Monster: Workshop on the Construction of Deviant Out-Groups 114
8. Autobiography, Biography, Memory, and the Truth 130

III. LIVING IN HISTORY

9. The Historian and the Writer 157
10. Holistic History: Challenges and Possibilities 163
11. Transformational Feminism (An Interview) 180
12. Reflections on Aging 188

APPENDIX A.

Biographies of Midwestern
Feminist Leaders 199

APPENDIX B.

Class Syllabus for Workshop on the Construction of Deviant Out-Groups (Chapter 7) 208

APPENDIX C.

Group Exercises for Workshop on the Construction
of Deviant Out-Groups (Chapter 7) 215

Acknowledgments 218

Index 221